

Break the Chains

Disciples Women from Virginia and North Carolina have teamed together to bring awareness and help put an end to this horrible crime.

National Human Trafficking Awareness Day

January 11, 2012

More than 12 million people world-wide are captured for forced labor and sex. These victims are men, women, and children. No one is safe.

Location: _____

There will be a service of awareness and prayer from
_____ to _____.

What can you do to help:

Post a Facebook status

Contribute your time

Donate

Pray for the victims

Human Trafficking Awareness Committee Members:

Katherine Hughes (NC) (252) 370-3713 katherine.hughes@wellsfargo.com

Jennifer Larson (VA) (757) 640-1915 jenngee11@cox.net

Rev. Valerie Melvin (NC) (252) 291-4047 valerie@ncdisciples.org

Donna Webster (VA) (540) 392-1312 discipleswomenva@gmail.com

Marilyn Whittaker (VA) (276) 806-4784 marilyn.whittaker@ymail.com

